

The Sea Ranch Weekend

October 18–20, 2024

“It was three hours north of San Francisco, two by Porsche. It was like finding paradise at the end of the world.”

Barbara Stauffacher Solomon, graphic designer

Along ten miles of rugged Northern California coast is a radical architectural experiment that embodies the idealism of the 1960's. Built on a former sheep ranch, The Sea Ranch housing development was envisioned by its founders to be a unique second home community that brought together a range of hearty like-minded individuals, who through collective ownership and place-driven design, sought to conserve the natural environment.. Docomomo's The Sea Ranch tour begins with a stroll through the meadow via an iconic cypress hedgerow, where we explore the original development ideas as laid out by Larry Halprin. Tour the early buildings by Moore, Lyndon, Turnbull and Whitaker, and Joseph Esherick and Associates, and learn how Barbara Stauffacher Solomon's Supergraphics put The Sea Ranch on the map. Visit buildings by William Turnbull, Obie Bowman, and James Hubbell, discover how The Sea Ranch evolved through the 1970's through the 1990's. Our tour culminates in a stunning private home, where we dine on the bounty of Sonoma County, while the sun sets over the Pacific.

SCHEDULE

Thursday, October 17 (Travel day)

We recommend guests arrive to The Sea Ranch no later than Thursday. It is a long 3-hour drive up the coast from San Francisco. Airports include SFO and Santa Rosa.

Friday, October 18

Start your weekend “living lightly on the land” at a leisurely pace. In the afternoon, we suggest guests experience The Sea Ranch on their own. In the evening, meet as a group at The Sea Ranch Lodge for a welcome cocktail reception.

Saturday, October 19

Gather in the morning for a light breakfast and a full day of site visits. After morning tours, guests are treated to lunch and then head back out as a group for an afternoon of site seeing. We cap our exciting day with a special group dinner at the William Turnbull Jr. designed Baker House from 1968. Guests are asked to wear their favorite Marimekko or festive modernist attire.

Sunday, October 20

For our final day, gather for breakfast. In the morning, visit the Moonraker Recreation Center by William Turnbull Jr., and stroll through Lawrence Halprin’s inspirational and minimally intrusive design in the native environment. Enjoy a light lunch before our final afternoon stops.

REGISTRATION

The Program Rate* includes a comprehensive educational land program as detailed; a special The Sea Ranch-inspired gift (approx. value $50); Friday evening wine and light bites reception; light breakfast and lunch on Saturday and Sunday; and communal dinner on Saturday evening.

Program Rate

Member: $1895 per person

Non-member: $2095 per person

Deadline for deposits is August 31.

*Not included: Accommodations at The Sea Ranch; meals and drinks where not described; transportation to and from The Sea Ranch.

We are visiting many of The Sea Ranch’s most significant and rarely seen homes and sites. Due to the private nature of the community, this is a caravan (car-pooling) type tour. Details regarding driving and car-pooling will be collected and organized prior to the trip.

Note that all schedules and program details are given in good faith, based on information available at the time. Circumstances may arise that prevent us from operating a tour exactly as advertised. TOUR GUIDE

Chad DeWitt is the founder of Framestudio, a small architecture and design practice that specializes in the preservation of architecturally significant homes from the 20th century. He was first exposed to The Sea Ranch while studying architecture at California College of the Arts in San Francisco. A weekend trip with classmates turned into an annual pilgrimage, and in 2017, he purchased one of the early Sea Ranch demonstration homes. A few years later, that home was awarded a Citation of Merit in the Docomomo US Modernism in America Awards.

Chad's personal passion lies in the Third Bay Area Tradition, a regional variation of late modernist architecture. He currently serves as the vice president of the Northern California chapter of Docomomo US, and spends his spare time documenting the modernist architecture in the city's Point Richmond neighborhood, where he lives with his husband James.

HOUSES AND SITES

The two-and-a-half-day tour to The Sea Ranch includes a number of houses and site visits such as:

The Sea Ranch Condo (Moore, Lyndon, Turnbull + Whitaker); Ohlson Rec Center (Charles Moore & William Turnbull Jr.); Miglio House (Charles Moore); Baker House, Reverdy Johnson House, Hines House, Moonraker Rec Center (William Turnbull Jr.); Esherick Residence, Haring Magoules House, Mini-Mod #3 (Joseph Esherick); Walk-In Cabin; Vendensky House (Dimitri Vendensky); The Sea Ranch Chapel, The Sea Ranch Lodge (James Hubbell)

Note: A final list of sites to be provided one month prior to the trip.

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATIONS

Consider adding a day to each end of the weekend for travel. California's Coast Highway 1 is a National Scenic Highway with some of the most beautiful vistas winding through historic towns, redwood forests, and ending at the sandy beaches in the south. It has exceedingly winding hairpin turns, steep drop-offs on one side, and in-your-face grassy hills. Plan for occasional one-lane closures.

Accommodations at The Sea Ranch include rooms at the Lodge or home stays such as the Redwood Rise, Walk-in Cabin, Tarp House – all designed by Obie Bowman. Guests may find accommodations through Airbnb, Vacasa, Vrbo, Sea Ranch Escapes (Paradiso by Lawrence Halprin is currently available), or through Coasting Home (Backpack by William Turnbull Jr. is currently available). If you've booked a home and would like to share a home with other guests, please contact Docomomo US staff for assistance.
