

Founded in the United States in 1995, Docomomo US is a non-profit organization led by a national Board of Directors and staff that represents a union of regional chapters that share its members' knowledge of and enthusiasm for modern architecture and design.

Our Mission

Pushing boundaries to preserve modern architecture, landscapes, and design through principled advocacy, collaboration, and celebration

Docomomo US Chapters

The Docomomo US network is organized in regional Chapters and Friend Organizations throughout the United States. Chapters sponsor educational programs, tours, research and advocate for threatened sites. If a chapter exists near you, you are encouraged to participate in their meetings and events. Contact the chapter nearest you to be put on their mailing list and to join in activities.

The modern movement is more relevant than ever, but its buildings are under threat. Docomomo helps protect and reimagine modernist masterpieces around the world.

How your membership supports the organization:

- Membership represents roughly 1/3 of our operating income
- Membership allows us to speak out on behalf of threatened sites, support aligned efforts, bring you modernism news and stories and provide programming such as Tour Day and the National Symposium
- Membership dues are shared with regional chapters and supports local advocacy and events

Benefits of membership:

- Membership in one of our regional chapters
- Subscription to the monthly newsletter
- Reciprocal discounts to modern homes through the Explore Modern House Partnership
- Discounts on local and national tours, lectures and events including the National Symposium and the Tour Day celebration
- Connection to a network of people and organizations uniquely interested in Modern architecture
