Agenda details:

- I. Discussion of steps to forming a local chapter.
  - a. Need a minimum of 10 DOCOMOMO members (annual membership fee is $90 for individuals as of Sept. 1).
    - i. Benefits of Denver vs. Colorado chapter
    - ii. If Colorado chapter, we could ask for regional reps to either attend meetings in person or by phone
  - b. Discussion of related fiscal issues - Fund raising events and what they look like if we were to do any before receiving our 501 status. (This includes membership — local chapters receive part of this).
- II. Begin formal identification of modernist buildings/sites/neighborhoods
  - a. Determine what we surmise to be noteworthy or threatened in the Colorado area (we can include Bayer's work in Aspen, work in Colo. Springs, etc., etc.).
  - b. Create an Excel or PowerPoint – benefits of one over another?
  - c. Someone will need to present this list/PowerPoint at the DOCOMOMO_US Board meeting in Chicago on June 3.
- III. Discussion of other opportunities.
  - a. Opportunities for co-sponsored events (contributing to events such as Modernism in Denver, Doors Open Denver, Boulder Modernism Week, etc.)?
- IV. Mission Statement and Board Members
  - a. What should our mission statement be?
  - b. Discussion of board structure and term limits (if any?). We might look at the Society of Architectural Historians Board structure and term limits

V. Reminders

- a. National Conference in Chicago June 3 – 6

VI. Meeting Adjournment.
